

United States Postal Service

The type of organisation

- United states postal service is a public organisation.

Aims and objectives

- The United States postal service have for objectives to create profit.

Size of business

- The United States postal service is a large public organisation
- More than 630 000 employees

Distribution of power

- The United States postal service is centralised.

Nature of business activity

- The United States postal service delivers mail.

Human, financial material, intangible resources

- Human: 653 167 employees
- Financial: -2 ,2 milliards $ (2021)
- Materials: local, car
- Immaterial: website <https://www.usps.com>

Legal business structure

- Government agencies,

Geographical scope

- The United States postal service is international.

Industry

- The United States postal service is a tertiary sector.

